Bicknell Bros.' Corner.

THE Prices on Woolens And Worsteds

have already advanced, but we are prepared to say to our customers—Do not be alarmed! Foreseeing this advance we ordered very heavily on woolen and worsted pieces goods before the passage of the new tariff bill. So that not a garment in our fall and winter stock will be affected by the advance in wool or woolens. So long as these large purchases of woolens and our large stock of manufactured garments last we shall give our customers the benefit thereof at such prices on many kinds of goods as were never before named in Massachusetts, and for the good of labor we hope never to see again. Prices that will set every wheel in motion, thus giving steady work and good pay to labor throughout the country, in far better than cheap goods, no work and no money with which to buy them. It is safe and even wise, however, for all to buy their winter apparel this season early. Why? Because woolen goods will certainly be no cheaper, and first choice is always best.

49

Of all the bargains in low price underwear we have ever seen, this is the most wonderful. Men's heavy winter weight shirts, double breasted, and drawers double seat, 49c. This is a fact—Good judges of underwear, not knowing its cost, have pronounced it worth one dollar. Our price is 49c.

1.49

The Wonder of Wonders. 375 pairs of Men's All Wool heavy winter Pants, at $1.49 per pair. You never saw the like before and never will again. Think of it! And every pair has two legs. This is truly mercurial suicide.

59

64 doz.—768 garments—in men's heavy fleece lined undershirts at 59c. These garments are lined with a wool fleece and are richly worth 75c. Just for an opening flyer we have marked them 59c. They are going like a pack of potatoes before an elephant.

They were married in Lawrence and lived in this town several years and later in Everett. She left him last July in Allston.

The Smith & Dove exhibit, which was displayed in the Town Hall during the 25th anniversary exercises, appeared in the trades procession at the Merchants' carnival in Lynn Wednesday. The team conveying the exhibit was in charge of John W. Bell. W. Higgins' brake also had a position in the line, with a party of young ladies aboard.

The board of registrars of voters will be in session at the Town house this evening and Wednesday evening, Oct. 18, from 7:30 to 9:30 o'clock p. m., and on Saturday, Oct. 23, from 12 o'clock to 10 p. m. also at the old schoolhouse at Ballardvale on Monday, Oct. 11, and Wednesday, Oct. 20, from 7:30 to 9:30 p. m.

The auction sale of newspapers and magazines for the Phillips Academy reading room, held in the Academy Chapel yesterday morning, was the most successful for many years. Over $850 was realized. The class of '98 bid $25 for Truth, and other periodicals brought proportionally high prices. O. P. Chase has the contract to supply the publications.

In the list of base-ball players who, in the opinion of Casper Whitney, sporting writer for Harper's Weekly, have forfeited their eligibility to play on college teams because they were members of "summer-nines" this season, making the charge of semi-professionalism possible, are Edwin J. French, captain of last year's P. A. nine, now of Dartmouth; Sedgwick, formerly of Andover, now of Brown; and Drew, formerly of Andover, now of Dartmouth.

When the Rev. James Means bought the manse of the Old South Church, a pane of glass with the name "Phillips" scratched upon it in old fashioned letters was still set in one of the parlour windows. As it was unquestionably from the time of old Parson Phillips' occupation of the house, it was removed and carefully preserved, although somewhat broken. It has now been put in a slight frame, and has been given by the family into the keeping of the Memorial Hall, as a relic interesting in the history of the town.

A meeting of Walter L. Raymond camp, S. of V., will be held shortly, when delegates will be present from camps in Haverhill, Lowell, Georgetown, Groveland and Lawrence to make arrangements for holding the camp fires of the "big six" this winter. Six camp fires are usually held, one in each city.

The first assembly under the auspices of Lincoln Lodge, No. 73, A. O. U. W., was held last evening and proved a most enjoyable affair. Excellent music was furnished by the Orpheus orchestra and dancing was enjoyed until a late hour. The following had charge: Floor director, Frank Smith; aids, R. Eastwood, J. H. Hilt, W. Abbott, Henry Laine, J. E. Little, G. Higginbotham.

The announcement in last week's Townsman that Carmel Woods park had been opened to the public caused a large number of citizens to visit the woods Sunday afternoon. The day was a beautiful one for walks or drives in the country and the park was seen under favorable circumstances. There was a very general expression of approval of the work done by the commissioners.

The past corner of the Post-office apartments has been arranged for the accommodation of the letter carriers. Desks have been placed in position and also a delivery stand for the clerks. A partition will be built to divide the corner from the rest of the office. Postmaster Goldsmith expects to announce the names of the carriers very soon.

A horse belonging to E. C. Pike, the Park street plumber, became frightened by an electric car while standing in front of J. E. Whiting's store about 7:30 Monday morning. The animal started to run and the wagon to which he was attached careened so much that a parlor stove was thrown into the street and demolished. The horse was stopped before it had run far.

The following officers were elected at a meeting of the Burns club Saturday night: President, James Anderson; vice-president, David Leslie; secretary, Isaac Cuthill; treasurer, A. L. Dick; executive committee, John Rogers, James Cameron, James and custodian, Arthur Batschelet. One more member of the executive committee will be elected at the next meeting, Joseph W. Smith and John Saunders will relate their experience during their outings this summer.

The Carletonville branch of the electric railroad will be continued to Andover in the spring and the Lowell Suburban road will extend its tracks from Lowell, through Tewksbury to Andover where it will join the local road and make another electric route to Lowell. A short time ago there was some rivalry between the two roads to see which would secure the franchise through Tewksbury. On the result of this hinged the question of which corporation would control the road, but representatives of the two companies came together and compromised the matter so that both will have an interest in the road. The Carletonville branch now runs as far as Beacon Street, Lawrence.

Those who believe chronic diarrhoea to be incurable should read what Mr. P. E. Grisham of Gaaz Mills, La., has to say on the subject, viz: "I have been a sufferer from chronic diarrhoea ever since the war and have tried all kinds of medicines for it. At last I found a remedy that effected a cure and that was Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. This medicine can always be depended upon for colic, cholera morbus, dysentery and diarrhoea. It is pleasant to take and never fails to effect a cure. 25 cent sizes for sale by Arthur Bliss, Andover, Mass., C. H. Shattuck, Ballardvale, Murphy's Drug store, No. Andover.

A colt driven by John Lindsay became frisky on Essex Street, Lawrence, Sunday afternoon and started to run away. Lindsay and his companion, A. G. Flaydon, the milk dealer, were thrown from the wagon. Lindsay sustained a severe laceration on his left hand, but Flaydon was uninjured.

Rev. William F. Stevens, well known to many of our citizens, was installed over the Congregational Church, Norfolk, Conn., on Wednesday of this week, Oct. 6. Professor Churchill preached the sermon. Mr. Stevens enters upon his new field under the most delightful auspices.

Edward C. Conway, A. B. M. D., has opened an office in Carter's Block, where he will be pleased to receive a share of the patronage of Andover people. Dr. Conway was connected with the Maryland General Hospital for six months, and has quite a practice in Lawrence. He comes to Andover highly recommended. His residence is at 22 Pearson Street.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Evers, Wednesday evening, the Helping Hand society of the Prospect Hill P. M. church, Lawrence, held its regular semi-monthly social. The event took upon itself the nature of a surprise party. The host and hostess, until a few weeks ago, were active in church work, but upon removing to their new home they were compelled to cease activities. In order, however, to show their appreciation of the work accomplished by them, the members of the church and congregation combined with the Helping Hand society presented Mr. and Mrs. Evers with a beautiful silver cake basket and pickle jar. After the presentation the company enjoyed themselves with songs and games. Later in the evening after having partaken of refreshments, the friends departed for Lawrence feeling that an excellent time had been enjoyed.

ESTIMATE OF CANDIDATES.

Progress of the Greater New York Political Battle. Brief Sketches of the Careers and Attributes of the Contestants.

[SPECIAL TO THE TOWNSMAN].

NEW YORK, OCT. 6, 1897.

The campaign for control of Greater New York has now resolved itself into a four-cornered fight with practically no probability of coalition between any of the four sides. The various elements in the campaign are compactly drawn up and the cannonading is under full headway. At present the two candidates who stand out with the greatest importance are Gen. Benjamin F. Tracy, leading the Republican sound money forces, and Henry George, heading the regular Democratic free silver forces. Judge Robert A. Van Wyck, the Tammany Hall candidate, is cutting a very unimportant figure, and Mr. Henry George's nomination and declarations have drawn heavily upon the ranks of Mr. Seth Low's supporters. Tammany in her convention last week evaded the Chicago Platform, as was expected, and put forth a municipal platform which is such a manifestly bold bidder for votes as to render it exceedingly weak. Tuesday night a tremendous rally was tendered Mr. George in Cooper Union and to-night the Citizens' Union will hold a public meeting in the same place. A comparison of the candidates is of interest at this stage of the campaign.

Benjamin Franklin Tracy was one of the founders of the Republican party. Throughout his entire career he has been actively associated in legal and political affairs. Mr. Tracy was born 67 years ago in Owego, New York. He received his scholastic education at the Owego Academy. When but 18 years of age he was elected delegate to the Tioga County Free Soil Convention and he began to fill the office of District Attorney at the age of 23 years, being re-elected for six consecutive years. He took a prominent part in organizing the Republican party throughout the western portion of the State. In 1861 he was elected to the Assembly. In 1862 he turned his attention to military affairs and recruited the 109th and 137th New York Volunteers. Later he was chosen colonel of the 109th Regiment. Colonel Tracy led his regiment to the front to join Burnside's Corps and in the Battle of the Wilderness his bravery and leadership were conspicuous. He fought in the thickest of the battle all day and toward night he fell from sheer exhaustion. He refused to be taken to the hospital and again led his regiment into the battle at Spotsylvania Court House. He broke down after this battle and was obliged to retire from active service. After recovering his health, Secretary of War Stanton appointed him to the Colonelcy of the 127th United States Regiment. After the war General Tracy practiced law in Brooklyn and in 1866 was appointed U. S. District Attorney from the Eastern New York District by Pres. Johnson. He distinguished himself at this time in a valiant fight against the Whiskey Ring. In the famous Beecher-Tilton trial he served as attorney for Mr. Beecher. He was appointed Judge of the Court of Appeals in 1891 and served in President Harrison's Cabinet as Secretary of the Navy. Since that office, General Tracy has been devoting his entire attention to law with the exception of his duties as Chairman of the Commission which drafted the Greater New York Charter. Gen. Tracy was counsel for the prosecution of John Y. McKane, the notorious Gravesend corruptionist. It was largely through his tremendous efforts that McKane was convicted.

While Mr. Low's career has been less eventful and brilliant than that of General Tracy, his character and honorable record is untarnished. Mr. Low is a man of large wealth, but he has spent his money generously for enterprises tending to the public good. Mr. Low is now in his 47th year. He was born in Brooklyn and graduated at the Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute, and afterward at Columbia College. After graduation he entered the tea and silk business founded by his father, and a few years later he was elected a member of the New York Chamber of Commerce. In the fall of 1882 the city of Brooklyn was confronted by a municipal contest in which good citizens united in an effort to defeat the McLaughlin Ring, analogous to the old Tweed Ring in this city. A large and powerful organization of citizens nominated Ripley Ropes for candidate. The Republicans nominated Gen. Tracy. It being evident that a divided force could not win, the two sides held a conference, Gen. Tracy and Mr. Ropes withdrew from the contest, and Seth Low was accepted as a joint compromise candidate. Under the leadership of the Republicans and Independents Mr. Low was elected, he at that time being a unifying force. In 1889 Mr. Low was elected to the Presidency of Dartmouth College, which office he has since held. The institution's $1,000,000 library, whose great white dome crowns Morningside Heights, is a gift from Mr. Low, being a memorial to his father. Mr. Low was a member of the Greater New York Charter Commission. Although a disbeliever in Protection he has usually voted the Republican ticket. It is alleged that his refusal to support Blaine lost this State for the Republicans. Mr. Low did not vote for General Harrison. Mr. Low's mental attainments are mediocre. Probably as good a description as any would be to say that he is an honorable matter-of-fact business man. The palaver in certain newspapers depicting Mr. Low as being little short of God-like and the only good candidate obtainable has been as sickening and false as the petty little criticisms of his character characterized by laughable sophistry, which have appeared in certain other newspapers. Mr. Low is an average man.

Henry George's life has been a roving one. His checkered career is marked by great diversity of experience. He has remained at no one vocation more than a few years and none of his enterprises have been brilliant successes. He has not, like the other candidates, enjoyed more than a public school education. He was born in Philadelphia, Sept. 2, 1839. He went to school a few years and then entered a commercial house as office boy. Later on he shipped as cabin-boy on an East India Merchantman and thus travelled to many foreign ports. When he returned he entered a printing house and worked as compositor till the age of twenty. Becoming tired of type setting, he went to California and engaged in various pursuits, finally getting a position as reporter on the Sacramento Record. His literary abilities were appreciated and he soon took charge of the editorship of the San Francisco Chronicle. He was discharged from the Chronicle for his violent attacks upon the Pacific roads, and came to New York to take charge of a rival press agency to the Associated Press. This lasted only a few years. In 1871 with two partners he went back to California again and established the San Francisco Evening Post. Four years later he sold out his interest in the paper and came back to New York. In 1877 he wrote his famous single tax book called "Progress and Poverty." Mr. George has dabbled in the politics of several parties. He began in the Republican party. In 1872 he joined the Democratic party and represented California in the National Convention which nominated Horace Greeley for President. In 1876 he stumped California for Tilden. In 1886 he joined the Labor party, was nominated for Mayor of this city and polled 69,000 votes. Mr. George has since been engaged in disseminating the single tax theories. Last year he stumped for Bryan and voted for the Chicago platform. Mr. George is extremely popular with the laboring classes. He has their absolute confidence.

Robert A. Van Wyck, Richard Croker's candidate for Tammany Hall, is 49 years of age. For the past eight years he has been Chief Justice of the City Court. Judge Van Wyck is a graduate of the Columbia Law School, class of '72. His preliminary education was obtained from the public schools. He then entered business as an errand boy and a clerk. Deciding he preferred law to business, he took the college course and then went into politics, taking an active part in the Democratic party. Seven years ago at a time when the French Ball was in its most notorious state of immorality, Judge Van Wyck occupied one of the boxes with a party of women and early in the morning, when the orgies were at their height, he was arrested, and spent the rest of the night in the station-house, the police blotter bearing the charge opposite his name of "drunk and disorderly conduct." Judge Van Wyck has little moral stamina and none of the sterling qualities found to greater or less extent in the other candidates. Thus it will be seen that the two sturdy characters which stand boldly out on the foreground of the battle are those of Mr. Henry George and General Benjamin F. Tracy. A. C. M.

BEST TEETH $5 TO $10 A SET and WARRANTED From Teething Time

Onward to the end of life, a person's teeth should be closely watched and properly cared for. Unless closely watched, decay is likely to set in, and get along so that it will be hard to remedy the evil. A person's teeth are of much importance to their appearance, health and happiness. If you neglect them, you will live to regret it. When they need repair have it properly done—have it done by a dentist who understands his business—is careful, skillful, patient. MUSGROVE BLOCK,

There are many pupils attending school at the present time who cannot use their eyes in study without pain and headache and irritation of the eyes, especially noticeable when they are used by artificial light, due to a hypermetropia, the correction of which by properly adjusted convex glasses would cause these annoying symptoms to vanish as rapidly as the morning dew before the rising sun. The frequency with which these cases are met with by parents and educators emphasizes the importance of an early recognition of the cause, in order that it may be removed before permanent injury is done to the sight, and that the complaints of children and their apparent stupidity may receive due allowance and not be met with undeserved punishment.

Evidences of Good Times.

With the barns bursting with plenty, and the banks so deluged with deposits that they will take no more, the industrial situation in the west is certainly gratifying. In the east the situation is not so far advanced but it is sure to come, that grand return of prosperity at which even now some presumptuous editor, will occasionally scoff. The winter promises to be one of unexampled prosperity in our industrial centres. The enormous amount of foreign goods shipped into the country by the importers in anticipation of the Dingley tariff will soon be exhausted. To supply this great home market will not only require the work of every loom in New England, but it will do more, it will necessitate additional facilities. New lines will be manufactured. The linen industry will receive an impetus which will enable it to be established for all time. Even now the mill men are turning their attention to the manufacture of finer lines which can only mean a larger market and more employment for skilled labor.

There is a marked improvement in trade, and a general confidence pervades all classes of merchants. The savings banks show that people have money to save, the land sales are evidence that they have it to invest. These are the straws that show that a steady trade wind is setting in which will bring the long looked for bark—General Prosperity.

Editorial Cinders.

While New Orleans has an epidemic of yellow fever, Andover seems to have an epidemic of "lost watches." No less than four are advertised for in our columns to-day, and no one knows how many more may be mourned for by losers.

There was a time when women had pockets for some of their necessary appurtenances like watches and pocket-books, but now the former is pinned on the outside of the outside garment and the pocketbook is carried in the hand.

The new woman without a pocket is yet a long way off from attaining the full satisfaction of manishness enjoyed by the man with a dozen places "to put things in."

Hurrah for Andover Manufacturers! We have always known that for schools and ministers and such like Andover was near the top but now in manufacturing she must also have a high place. The Smith & Dove Company's capture of second prize in Lynn's trade display is a splendid compliment to this pushing concern and its progressive management.

Let no voter think this year's election is unimportant. No election is unimportant, but every year should be an "on" year for the voter who has the right conception of his duty as a citizen. This means that the duty just now is to see that you are properly registered.

Phillips and Abbot are now well under way and it is gratifying to be able to chronicle the fact that both have as large attendance as last year.

Abbot Academy Piano Recitals, 1897-1898.

It is pleasant to say that we have once more the delightful prospect of another series of these charming concerts. The subscription book is already on its rounds and definite announcements will be made as soon as possible. It is sufficient to say now, that Mr. and Mrs. Max Heinrich and perhaps Miss Heinrich are confidently expected; that Madame Szumowska and her husband, Mr. Adamowski, are engaged, and that for the third concert an eminent pianist will be provided who will be assisted by Miss Mona Downs of New York who has recently returned from a stay of two years in Europe. During this time Miss Downs has studied with the most celebrated masters and won from them the highest encomiums. To a beautiful voice Miss Downs brings a very musical temperament and sings exquisitely.

There are too many people with prematurely gray hair, when they might avoid it by applying that reliable and effective preparation, Hall's Hair Renewer.

ALBERT POOR BY ACCLAMATION.

Nominated for Representative. Dow and Flynn for Senator. Political News.

At the eighth district republican representative convention, which was held in the lower Town Hall Monday evening, Albert Poor, Esq., was nominated for representative by acclamation.

Chairman Peter D. Smith called the delegates to order at 8 o'clock and read the call for the convention James C. Poor of North Andover was elected chairman, Calvin Rea of North Andover having declined to serve when nominated. The organization was made permanent by the election of Galen B. Howe of Middleton as secretary, J. Warren Berry declining the nomination.

To select on the committee on credentials, the following were chosen: Ralph G. Peabody of Middleton; F. M. Hill of Andover; and Frank Lewis of North Andover. They reported twenty delegates present out of twenty-three elected. Andover's delegation of twelve was complete, Middleton's two delegates reported and six of the nine delegates from North Andover presented their credentials. It was suggested that the vacancies in the North Andover delegation be filled out, but Calvin Rea announced that it seemed hardly necessary to take the time for that since it appeared to be understood that there was but one candidate before the convention and the business for which the meeting was called was transacted by the twenty delegates.

John E. Smith then moved that Albert Poor be nominated as republican representative candidate for the eighth district by acclamation. The vote was unanimous and Mr. Poor was declared the nominee. On motion of Barrett Rogers it was voted that the chairman of the republican town committee of North Andover, Middleton and Andover serve on the district committee for 1897.

Cigars furnished by the nominee were passed around while Albert S. Manning left the hall and escorted Mr. Poor before the convention.

Mr. Poor said: "I thank you gentlemen, for the kindly interest you have taken in me. I feel gratified by the complimentary vote which Andover accorded me at the caucus and I thank the voters of North Andover and Middleton for ratifying the choice of Andover."

"I am sorry for the other fellow for I think you let him down rather hard, but I don't know as I am responsible for that. Again I thank you, gentlemen, for the honor you have conferred upon me."

On motion of William Marland the convention was then dismissed.

HARRY R. DOW FOR SENATOR.

The republican fifth district senatorial convention was held in City Hall, Lawrence, Saturday afternoon, and the expression of the voters' choice in the caucus was carried into effect by the nomination of Harry R. Dow.

The convention was called to order at 2 o'clock by Fred M. Abbott, member of the state convention, and John L. Brewster was chosen temporary chairman. Newton P. Frye of North Andover was elected temporary secretary.

The committee on credentials comprised: George W. Foster, Andover; J. T. Twissden, Boxford; K. S. Norwood, Lawrence; George Hey, Methuen; A. A. Currier, North Andover; G. K. Grantham, Topsfield.

The committee reported twenty-six delegates present, the various places being represented as follows: Lawrence three, Andover five, North Andover two, Methuen four, Boxford one, Topsfield one.

The temporary organization was then made permanent. Newton P. Frye presented Harry R. Dow a name to the convention in a spirited speech.

On motion of G. A. Kittredge, Harry R. Dow was nominated for senator by acclamation.

Mr. Frye and others then brought Mr. Dow before the meeting. The candidate was loudly applauded. In the course of his remarks he said:

"It is true that the gentleman who will oppose me is a man of high character. I call him my personal friend and respect him highly. But he is a democrat and subscribes to all the doctrines of the Chicago platform. That party has been responsible for our unfortunate business conditions and our present hope for something better is due to the overthrow of that party. However good a man Mr. Flynn is, he is a democrat and does not deserve the votes of a manufacturing district. His party strikes heavily at the interests of such a section. Mr. Dow said that if elected he would represent the district to the best of his ability."

F. N. Abbott was elected a member of the state central committee.

The district committee was chosen as follows: Barnett Rogers, Andover; Daniel W. Coleman, Boxford; John S. Tapley, Methuen; J. P. Poor, Topsfield; Newton P. Frye, North Andover; John T. Beanland, ward one; Lawrence E. S. Norwood, ward two; C. H. Kittredge, ward three; William Foster, ward four; William Hendry, ward five; Mark Manahan, ward six.

Before the convention adjourned delegates from the various towns each spoke hopefully for republican success.

FLYNN FOR SENATOR.

The fifth Essex Senatorial democrat district delegates met last evening in city hall, Lawrence. W. J. Bradley read the call, John M. Lynch was chosen temporary chairman and Fred Spaulding, secretary.

It was voted that the committee on credentials should consist of the chairman of each ward or town delegation. They reported the whole number of delegates present 35.

Cornelius McCarthy presented Joseph J. Flynn for the senatorial nomination and W. J. Bradley seconded. The nomination was made by acclamation.

Daniel F. McCarthy was elected to the central committee, Fred C. Spaulding declining to contest after the third ballot.

DEMOCRATIC COUNTY CONVENTION.

The democratic county convention was held at Salem, Friday afternoon. E. P. Wildes of Georgetown was elected chairman. Willard J. Hale of Newburyport was nominated by acclamation for register of deeds in the lower district. Mr. Hale was also nominated by the republicans and his election is assured. R. F. Wildes was nominated for county commissioner. John Dennis of Lynn was nominated for county treasurer.

Confusion as to the choice of a blood-purifier is unknown. There is but one best preparation, and that is Ayer's. This important fact was recognized at the World's Fair, Chicago, 1893, being the only blood-purifier admitted to be placed on exhibition.

SANBORN FOR REGISTER OF DEEDS.

The republican register of deeds convention was held in the City Hall basement, Lawrence, at 2.30 Tuesday afternoon. Aretas R. Sanborn was renominated for the office of register by acclamation.

The convention was called to order by Newton P. Frye, a member of the district committee. Franklin Butler was elected chairman and George W. Foster of Andover secretary as a temporary organization which was afterward made permanent.

The committee on credentials—Byron Truell of Lawrence, J. A. Smart of Andover, and H. K. Webster of Lawrence—reported that there were twenty-one delegates present.

N. P. Frye nominated Aretas R. Sanborn for register and was seconded by Byron Truell. The nomination was made by acclamation.

Warren E. Rice of Lawrence, N. P. Frye of North Andover and Jacob Emerson of Methuen were elected to serve on the district committee.

Mr. Sanborn, the nominee, addressed the convention. He thanked the delegates for their courtesy and spoke briefly of the needs of modern politics.

COUNCILLOR CONVENTION.

The republican councillor convention for the sixth district was held at Lowell, yesterday and Elisha H. Shaw of North Chelmsford was re-nominated by acclamation.

A. V. I. S. Course of Entertainments.

The entertainment committee of the A. V. I. S. has arranged to give a course of three entertainments in the Town Hall. On Oct. 29 will be given, Mrs. Jarley's Wax Work Show, under the charge of Miss Mary Seldon McCobb of Portland, Me.

The second entertainment will be given Nov. 12, when Mrs. Annie Sawyer Downs will lecture upon "Childhood in Art," fully illustrating her theme by the aid of the stereopticon. Mrs. Downs is so well known in town that it is not necessary to dwell upon her ability to interest and instruct her audience. It is always a pleasure to hear her.

At the third entertainment, Dec. 3, some of the best local talent will give two farces.

In presenting this course the committee feel that it can conscientiously recommend it to the patronage of Andover residents.

Full particulars in regard to tickets etc., will be given in the next issue of this paper.

For the benefit of those who may not be familiar with the immortal Mrs. Jarley, the following is quoted:

"Those who would make the acquaintance of the original Mrs. Jarley and her wax 'fingers' will find their history in 'The Old Curiosity Shop' by Mr. Charles Dickens. There they will read of the old lady who travelled in a van, stopping in small towns and exhibiting her images, which you could scarcely tell from life, so natural were their mechanical gestures."

The modern Mrs. Jarley copies the dress, the huge bonnet with its marvelous adornment, the manner and the peculiar English of her illustrious predecessor. But the 'fingers' are no longer automatic. They are human flesh and blood, yet so rigid are they, so 'stiff and gooselike' are their gestures, that 'you could scarcely tell them from wax.'

There may be comparisons drawn between the two Mrs. Jarleys to the detriment of the latter. But no one can deny that the present 'fingers' are beyond question superior to those carried about in the van, and that they 'form a show hitherto unequalled in this or any other country.'

Relief Corps Apron Sale.

The Women's Relief Corps held a successful apron sale and entertainment in Grand Army Hall last evening. The attendance was large and a neat sum was realized.

Excellent music was furnished during the evening by an orchestra made up as follows: David Lindsay, cornet; Misses Buchanan and Cox, violins; and Mrs. Cox, piano. Two short dramas furnished a delightful entertainment. The first, "Aunt Polly's Lesson," was participated in by Mrs. Barton, Mrs. Findley, Miss Sadie Hobbs and Miss Alma Fleck. The other, entitled "A Home Cure," was presented by Misses Agnes McIntyre, Jennie Dearborn, Nellie Dearborn and James Keeland of Ballardvale.

Popcorn was sold by Miss Lottie Cox and Frank Barton. Flora Lindsay and Ella Barton were flower girls. The flower table was in charge of Alice Moore. Miss Meers presided at the candy table. At the fancy table were Miss Morrill and Miss Findley. Aprons and towels were sold by Mrs. Carruth and Mrs. Coleman.

The Andover Club.

The annual meeting of the Andover club was held in the club rooms in Musgrove block, Wednesday evening.

Pres. Ripley presided, and a goodly number of the club members was present. The following officers were elected: Pres., George Ripley; Vice-Pres., Geo. H. Poor; Secretary, W. H. Goodwin; Treasurer, F. E. Gleason; Directors, Geo. H. Torr, J. N. Cole, A. S. Mann, J. A. Smart, and the committee, T. F. Pratt, G. H. Gilbert, H. B. Lewis, F. S. Mills and W. H. Gile.

A Live Newspaper.

Members of the A. O. U. W. will be interested to know that the Boston Herald will print the most complete reports of the coming celebration of the initiation of the 50,000th member. The Herald has been vindicating its right to the title, New England's greatest newspaper, by collecting the news this summer in unapproachable style, and the fact that it is going to exploit the A. O. U. W. celebrations is a guarantee that its daily issues will be worth keeping for souvenirs by our members.

The Boston Herald has forged ahead of every other Boston paper by clean cut news gathering this summer, which has produced results without a parallel in Boston.

In all departments of news gathering—criminal, political, sporting, financial and general—The Boston Herald has the best men at work, and gives its readers exclusive and best tidings on topics of the day. The Herald will lead every other Boston paper in news of the celebration—New England Anchor and Shield.

A Life Work Done.

On Tuesday July 27, in New York City John Condit Pennington, M. D. son of Dr. Samuel H. and the late Anna J. M. Pennington of Newark, N. J.

This announcement of the death of this late resident among us, loyal to the end to the circle of friends he left in old Andover, was delayed a while in order to receive from relatives, absent from home, some account of his record as a student, previous to his advent among us, a skillful surgeon. In June 1871, he was graduated from Princeton, with the Fellowship in Natural Science, and was appointed Junior assistant on the House Staff of Bellevue hospital, Oct. 1874. A graduate of Columbia College of Physicians, in March, 1875, he was on the same day appointed Senior Assistant and House Surgeon at Bellevue, removing to Cold Spring on the Hudson, to begin the practice of his profession in the year following. There he met the lovely woman who came among us for so short a stay but whose memory brings to those who knew her, a gracious and rare picture. Ellen Kemble Paulding to whom our then resident new doctor was married in June, 1881, found a place ready for her that her husband, laying aside his student habits, had made in the best families of our town. His rare musical gifts and skill as a violinist had already brought him into relations with the lovers of music, that are found in all ranks here, and long after she had passed from our midst, and he had begun the fight with the dread enemy that compelled him to go to higher latitudes in 1886, he came back for a farewell visit. All who lingered after the organ recital at Christ Church, when our old leader, Mr. Whitney, brought us all together once more, will recall the scarce controlled emotion displayed by our friend, who knew better than we, that it was really a farewell.

Colorably, the Adirondacks, all the loving care of a brother and sister and the brave effort of his own lonely spirit could not avail. One vacation after another was given up, and it came to the long days in the hospital at last, where till the end names unfamiliar to his kin, of our Andover people brought to him pleasant memories of his short service among us. He wanted us all to know that he never forgot one thought or visit during the long struggle. Not in length of years, but in thoroughness of work did he impress his rare ability upon us for service. The memory of this pair, who did so much in the time given them to raise the standard for the exacting profession he had chosen, will long stay with their associates in all circles. In the words of a loving friend here, "they were of those we look forward to meeting again beyond." They rest together at last in the little village cemetery upon the Hudson.

P. A. ELEVEN DEFEATS TUFTS.

College Men Outplayed Wednesday. Andover, 14; Worcester A. A., 0.

The Phillips Academy football team has won two victories this week, defeating the Worcester Athletic Association team 14 to 0 on Saturday, and the Tufts College eleven 6 to 4 Wednesday. The game with Tufts was a hard fought contest and Andover won by superior work. The college men from Medford displayed considerable knowledge of the game as well as considerable strength in the first half but they were no match for the Academy players in the second half.

Under "Joe" Upton's instructions the Tufts team had perfected a revolving play which was used to good advantage until Andover was able to arrange an effective defense.

Capt. Elliot, Schreiber, Abbott, and Baylis, played well for Andover and the best work for Tufts was done by Moses, Almeida and Avery.

Andover scored in one minute after play began. Cullinane kicked well down the field and Phillips tried to return the ball but fumbled. Schreiber fell on the ball within 15 yards of the goal. Short plunges through Tufts' centre covered more than half the distance and then Baylis crossed the line. Cullinane failed to kick a goal.

Tufts soon secured the ball on a kick and steadily forced the pigskin down the field and Moses secured a touchdown. In the second half Andover scored two points by forcing Tufts back for a safety. The ball was in Tufts' territory during the greater part of the time.

The line up:

ANDOVER. TUFTS.

Foot-Ball Notes.

The Riversides will play the Methuen foot-ball eleven at Andover to-morrow.

Phillips-Exeter plays Technology to-morrow.

P. E. A. defeated Tufts 4 to 0 Saturday.

The P. A. - B. A. game, scheduled for Saturday, has been postponed.

Millard, an old Andover and Brown University football and baseball player, will come to Andover soon to give the P. A. eleven a few points on foot-ball.

There will be no game at Phillips Academy to-morrow afternoon. Fred Murphy will spend the afternoon coaching the members of the team.

The game scheduled to be played at Glen Forest, Monday, between the Punched eleven and the Lawrence High school team was cancelled.

The Punched Free School foot-ball eleven played its first game of the season with the Riversides, Saturday, and was defeated 4 to 0.

Timothy Cullinane injured the ball of his foot so severely in yesterday's practice, on the Phillips Academy campus, that he will probably be unable to play again this season.

The Crescents played a picked team in Lawrence, Saturday, and were defeated 12 to 0 in 20-minute halves. The picked team proved too heavy for the Andover youngsters.

An effort will be made to change the date of the Exeter Andover foot-ball game. The date now arranged is Nov. 13 and is the same date as the Harvard-Yale game at Cambridge.

"Joe" Upton, P. A. '90, Harvard '94, who played tackle on the Andover and Harvard elevens, attended the Andover-Tufts game Wednesday. Mr. Upton will coach Andover during a part of the season.

The Phillips Academy eleven is scheduled to play the Boston Athletic Association team on the campus to-morrow afternoon. B. A. A. is strong this year, but it is expected that Andover will be able to make the contest a close and interesting one.

REVISED SCHEDULE.

Nov. 4, reserved for Lawrenceville at Andover.
Nov. 12, Friday, at Exeter, Exeter.

Wedding.

HURLEY-TOBIN.

Randall Hurley employed in the Andover water works' department, and Bridget Tobin were united in marriage at St. Augustine's church, Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

The service was conducted by the Rev. Fr. Field. The bride was prettily attired in white organdie. She carried bride's roses. Miss Mary McCarthy was bridesmaid.

A reception was held in the evening at the new home of the young couple on North Main Street. Mr. and Mrs. Hurley were the recipients of many beautiful and useful wedding presents.

Millinery Opening.

The fall opening of the millinery parlors of Miss L. V. Burleigh and Miss E. M. Abbot in the Musgrove building, is being held this week, and it is the first opening of imported millinery goods ever held in Andover.

The parlors are attractively arranged and the young ladies carry a complete stock of the latest novelties in bonnets, hats, laces, veils, neckwear, ribbons, children's hats and a large assortment of flowers and mourning goods.

Miss Burleigh is an expert milliner and shows much skill and taste in trimming hats and bonnets. In stock are some of the most beautiful creations in hats and bonnets which the ladies of Andover have ever seen. None better can be found in the Boston and New York stores.

One imported chenille hat with a rosette of beautiful velvet is trimmed with an Impian bird and cock's feathers. Another "thing" of beauty is a chenille bonnet, with black and white aigrettes, a black velvet puff and steel ornaments. An imported bonnet with a sequin crown is considered the most beautiful in stock.

A neat hat which is attracting attention is a little green turban, trimmed with velvet and plaid ribbon, with a bird so placed as to produce a very artistic effect.

Twenty-one churches were represented at the annual meeting of the Merrimack River Baptist Association which was held Wednesday with the Immanuel Baptist church in Lowell. The churches included all the Baptist churches in Lowell, Chelmsford, Billerica, Tewksbury, Lawrence, Methuen, Andover, Georgetown, and Merrimack. These churches have a membership of about 5550, a net increase over last year of about 150.

Their reports presented a valuation of church property of $459,550, an expenditure for home expenses of $55,000, benevolent contributions of $9440. Only two churches report a decrease of membership, the additions in the others aggregating, by baptism 240 letter 180. Measures were taken to secure the legal incorporation of the Association, as a considerable legacy has been left to it to be used for missionary purposes.

Tired people are tired because they have exhausted their strength. The only way for them to get strong is to eat proper food.

But eating is not all. Strength comes from food, after digestion. Digestion is made easy with Shaker Digestive Cordial.

People who get too tired, die. Life is strength. Food is the maker of strength. Food is not food until it is digested.

Tired, pale, thin, exhausted, sick sufferers from indigestion, can be cured by the use of Shaker Digestive Cordial.

It will revive their spent energies, refresh and invigorate them, create new courage, endurance and strength, and by helping their stomachs to digest their food.

It aids nature, and this is the best of it. It gives immediate relief and, with perseverance, permanently cures. Sold by druggists. Trial bottle 10 cts.

The Union Temperance meeting in Bradlee Hall last Sunday evening called together one of the largest and most representative audiences in the Village. The hall was filled to overflowing, and great interest was manifested.

The meeting was held under the auspices of the three churches, and was an unusually successful one. Very vivid and practical addresses were made by William Shaw, the chairman of the meeting, Rev. C. Le Verne Roberts, Rev. Arthur L. Golder, and the Rev. Father Field.

It is certainly a noteworthy fact that the three churches of the Vale can present such a united front to this greatest of all evils, and can work together in such a practical manner to stimulate and arouse a healthy public sentiment. It speaks volumes for the future welfare and prosperity of the Village. A committee of five was appointed to look after the enforcement of our laws. After the singing of America, the audience dispersed to their several homes each one feeling that at least the Christian people are alive and active, and were willing to do all they could to remove intemperance from our midst.

To remove the constipated habit, the only safe treatment is a course of Ayer's Pills, followed by a laxative diet. Most other cathartics do more harm than good, therefore leading physicians recommend Ayer's Pills, especially as a family physic.

"A PECULIAR PEOPLE."

Subject of Sermon Preached by Rev. Mr. Stanton at Advent Christian Church.

At the advent chapel Sunday morning the pastor, Rev. F. S. Stanton, preached a sermon, his topic being "A peculiar people." His text was from Titus 2:14: "Who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify unto himself a peculiar people, zealous of good works."

"Christ," said the speaker, "is a great gift for three reasons: In the first place he is a great gift in that he is the Son of God; second because he gave his whole self, and thirdly because he is so perfectly adapted to the needs of those for whom he gave himself."

The next of the three thoughts suggested to the speaker by the above text was the redemption. "That redemption," he said, "is wonderful for the following reasons: In the forgiveness and removal of past sins; in the escape from the present control of sin and in the salvation from the consequences of sin."

"These things produce a peculiar people; not peculiar as personally different from others but as being Christ's own. While he died for all and bought all yet those who receive him are peculiarly his own. One peculiarity is the inward condition of the heart out of which will come the natural expression of good works. The purifying process will involve discipline, grief and sacrifice, but from these we shall be purified from all remaining dross like the gold or silver in the crucible. As the metal in the furnace shows the face of him who watches, so our lives are purified in the furnace of affliction and however hard and hot the fire is we may still be encouraged to know that we are peculiarly and eternally Christ's."

ARRIVED SAFELY.

Jerry O'Sullivan Endured the Journey to North Carolina Bravely.

Jeremiah T. O'Sullivan arrived in Asheville, North Carolina, Sunday afternoon. He did not appear to be fatigued by his long and arduous journey. He was accompanied by his brother, John E. O'Sullivan. Dr. Battles, an eminent specialist, was consulted immediately upon O'Sullivan's arrival. The physician said that the fact that O'Sullivan had stood the journey so well was an indication that he still possessed a good deal of strength.

BERNIE WEFERS.

Defeated His Old Rivals and Makes Another Record for 150 Yards.

At Travers Island, New York, Bernard J. Wefers broke the world's record Saturday by doing the 150 yards dash in 14.35 seconds, clipping a fifth of a second from the record. He had Maybury and Rush to run against. In the 50 yards dash Wefers defeated Klunder and Rush, both of Chicago. Wefers also did great work in the mile relay race.

Two Civil Cases.

Judge Stone heard two civil cases in police court Tuesday. The first, that of David Kennedy vs. George Boutwell, was an action of contract, the ad damnum being $100. The plaintiff sued to recover pay for services performed while in the defendant's employ. Attorney Gavin appeared for the plaintiff and Attorney Saunders for the defendant.

The second was also an action of contract in which Alexander Couture seeks to recover his compensation for digging a cellar for H. J. Marks. In this case W. J. Bradley represented the plaintiff and J. J. Mahoney the defendant. Decision was reserved.

Its 25th Anniversary.

The United Congregational church celebrated its 25th anniversary Sunday. The attendance was large. Rev. Henry E. Oxnard, pastor of the Riverside Congregational church, in an interesting address, told of the progress of the church since its inception and complimented the society for its energy in building the new church which will be ready for occupancy within two weeks.

Evening School.

The evening schools committee of the school board met Monday and voted to open the evening schools October 18. The old corps of teachers were re-elected.

It was voted to have a high school course of three years, providing a sufficient number of applicants desire to attend. The committee has a large number of applicants already for a high school course.

O'Sullivan Will Live.

A despatch from John F. O'Sullivan, who is at Asheville, N. C., at midnight Monday, sent to Officer John O'Sullivan, stated that Dr. Battles, an eminent specialist, gives his opinion that Jeremiah T. O'Sullivan will not only live, but will get better. The doctor says it will take a long time for him to recover his health, but that he will survive.

THEY WENT A'HUSKIN.

Merry Party from Garden St. Church Invades the Premises of Farmer Boyce.

A more glorious night for the occasion could not be desired and merrier crowd never went to "The Shuckin' of the Co'n" than those that went with the Garden street Epworth league Monday evening out to Farmer Boyce's on the Lowell road, Methuen.

The party to the number of 75 or more went by special electric, start being made from the corner of Essex and Newbury streets at 7.25 precisely, and after a 20 minutes ride disembarked and a 10 minutes walk through fields and by roadside under the bright October moon, brought them to the scene of operations.

Here Farmer Boyce had heaped upon the floor of his spacious barn a good heap of the "golden grain" and soon the merry huskers were busy at work. Time sped merrily on amid laughter and glee every now and then interspersed with some louder exclamation as here and there the "stray red ears" popped out from their gray.

Later, refreshments were served in the farm house and we doubt if ever Farmer Boyce and his estimable wife entertained a more genial crew, or his dwelling was ever so well filled. Then followed games in which every one vied with his neighbor in making the play fast and furious until the hour of eleven, when after a hearty vote of thanks to the host and hostess, the homeward march was commenced and the city was reached shortly before 12 o'clock. The committee of arrangements were Robert Ward, John Wain, W. N. Bordette, and Miss Lillian Penney.

COUNTY NOTES.

MORE BURGLARIES REPORTED.

HAVENHILL, Oct. 4.—Two more cases of burglary were reported to the police Saturday. In the morning a burglar entered a house on High street occupied by Michael Lynch and rifled two trunks securing $51. Saturday afternoon the house at 56 River street was entered and a small bank owned by a little girl at the place was robbed of $6. The burglars also visited the other side of the house and took away with them earrings and a quantity of jewelry. While Charles W. Webster of Kenosha street, with his family, was attending the coaching parade last week, the man whom he had lately employed to work on his farm entered his house and took about $40, a part of which was in old coins, together with a revolver and a pin. Mr. Webster reported the case to the police and it is being investigated.

STOLE THE CASH REGISTER.

LYNN, Oct. 6.—Thieves entered Folsom's drug store, 153 Broad street, about 10 last night, and while the clerk was busy at the rear of the store, took the cash register, containing a large portion of the day's receipts, and walked out. The register was quite heavy and required the combined efforts of two men to take it from the store. The person who was waiting for the clerk to compound a prescription thought that the thieves had a perfect right to leave the store with the register, and consequently did nothing to prevent it.

THE SHOE SHIPMENTS.

HAVENHILL, Oct. 4.—Owing probably to the celebration of Merchants' week here the shoe shipments for the past week were less in volume than the average of the past few months would warrant. Many factories closed down on the more important days and that affected the out-put may be readily seen. The shipments for the past week were 6145 for the corresponding week a year ago they were 6148.

KEROSENE EXPLODED.

SALEM, Oct. 4.—Grand army hall narrowly escaped destruction by burning Saturday night. Early in the evening the janitor lighted a kerosene stove in the adjutant's room and then went away. Some time later an explosion occurred, and when Col. Frank Dalton, Adj. Albert Lownd and Qm Brown arrived on the scene the wood-work was ignited. The smoke was so dense that it was impossible to work at first, but finally some of the windows were raised and the fire extinguished.

HORSE AND WAGON STOLEN.

NEWBURYPORT, Oct. 4.—A horse, democrat wagon and harness were stolen from the barn of Silas Noyes, a well-known Newbury farmer, yesterday morning. The burglars, after effecting an entrance, hitched up the best horse in the stable and drove in the direction of this city. The tracks of the wheels were traced as far as the Boston & Maine railroad crossing.

AMESBURY WOMAN INJURED.

AMESBURY, Oct. 4.—Mrs. Nancy B. Brown, an aged and well-known resident of this place, was descending a flight of steps at her home yesterday, when she fell, striking her head upon a step. She was assisted into the house and a physician called who found no bones broken. Mrs. Brown received, however, several bad cuts and bruises about the head.

ALDERMAN APOLOGIZED.

GLOUCESTER, Mass., Oct. 6.—In the board of aldermen last night Alderman Merchant, who created so much confusion at the meeting last Friday night by his attack upon Mayor Cook, arose on a question of privilege and made a full apology to the mayor for his remarks, which was accepted by the mayor.

HOOD'S PILLS cure Liver Ills, Biliousness, Indigestion, Headache. Easy to take, easy to operate. 75c.

KILLED ON A BRIDGE.

PEABODY, Oct. 5.—An unknown man, weighing about 200 pounds and 40 years old, was struck by a coal train on the bridge near Wallace street last night and was mangled so that identification has been impossible. The remains were given in charge of a Salem undertaker.

Later.—The man who was killed on the railroad here has been identified as John McDonald, a pedler who was well known in this section and is supposed to have made his home in Boston.

FRACTURED A LEG.

SALEM, Oct. 5.—A seven-year-old son of Charles Coulthurst, 7 Summer street, met with a serious accident Saturday afternoon while playing on the common. He had climbed to the top of the fence near the large gate on the eastern side when he slipped and fell, his leg becoming caught in the pointed ornamental work. Both bones of the lower leg were fractured.

BURNED WITH VITRIOL.

SALEM, Oct. 5.—Mrs. Sadie Wellman, 26 years of age, Lynn, yesterday, reported to the police that Saturday night an unknown man threw vitriol on her as she was walking on Union street. She threw up her hands to her face and thus saved her eyes, but the acid burned her hands severely. Mrs. Wellman is separated from her husband, but she does not suspect him of the assault.

INQUEST FINDING.

BEVERLY, Oct. 6.—Judge Holden has filed a finding in an inquest held on the death of Moses F. G. Shaw, a boy killed on the Boston & Maine at a private crossing in this town. He finds no blame attached to the company, but if there had been a flagman at the crossing the accident would not have happened.

COUNTY NOTES.

A valuable horse and democrat wagon were stolen Sunday morning from Silas Noyes' barn in Newbury.

George Gerard of Beverly has purchased the apothecary business of Edwin C. McIntire of East Gloucester.

Schooner Emma and Helen, Capt. William Herman of Gloucester, stocked $4150 on her recent fresh halibut trip, the crew sharing $80 each.

Olis Partridge, driver of Horse 4, Lynn, while exercising one of the horses of the fire department, Sunday, was thrown to the ground and severely hurt.

Mrs. Catherine E. Orr, Lynn, had $52 in her pocket yesterday afternoon, money she had saved to pay interest on a mortgage; now a pickpocket has it.

There were only seven deaths in Salem, last week, an unusually low number for this season of the year, and an indication that the sanitary state of the city is excellent.

Complaint has been made against three well-known Rowley fishermen for breaking the fish law, and it is understood that they will be called upon to answer to the charges in court.

Henry Moulton, 45, married, an engineer living in Lynn, was at work blasting rock at South Weymouth Saturday, when a premature blast occurred and he was seriously injured about the head and arms.

Spauldesh, for alleged assault by throwing vitriol upon her lover, Thos. Keliher, was held for the superior court Saturday in the Lynn police court. The assault was committed two months ago.

Conductor Thomas Holstead of Gloucester, who has been in the service first of the Eastern and later of the Boston & Maine railroad for 42 years, resigned Saturday. During his term of service no passengers have been injured while on his train.

While digging for the sewer in front of the Central fire station, Newburyport, yesterday, workmen came across the capill of a wharf that used to come up to the square before the market house was built. It appeared to be in a good state of preservation.

Mrs. Clara Jackson of Lynn, was knocked down by a frightened horse driven by Michael H. Reardon Sunday afternoon and received internal injuries.

The house of Fred Noble, Lynn, was entered and the contents thoroughly ransacked by burglars, Saturday night. Only $4.50 was taken, but some very valuable and negotiable papers were stolen.

John Woods, a morocco dresser of Lynn, attempted to get under the gates of the Pleasant street crossing of the Boston & Maine railroad, Saturday, and was struck by a freight car. His left arm was so horribly crushed that it had to be amputated.

The unknown dead man found in a closet at the lodging house, 418 and 422 Washington street, Lynn, Friday night, after the fire had been extinguished, supposed to be William Fleming, a shoemaker, has been identified as George Esterbrook, an agent for a Boston firm.

Merrill Emerson McPhail PIANOS

Few people have the courage to buy a cheap piano after carefully examining a really fine one. A pretty casing is often designed to sell a poor musical instrument. These well known makes combine beauty outside and worth within. Among the first-class ones these three are the most popular—not low priced and inferior, but cheap for their superior quality. These pianos can be purchased from $300 to $400, according to size and case—quality just the same. We will rent you one of these famous instruments for three months delivered right in your home for $15. Medium grade pianos for $12. Cheap pianos for $10. If you decide the piano is all we claim for it and decide to purchase, the rent will be allowed as payment on your instrument.

HELP CAME IN TIME.

GEORGETOWN, Oct. 4.—Miss May Warren and Miss Daisy Wilson, both well known young ladies of this town, had an exciting experience, near Curtis hill, last week. They had been to Haverhill to witness the exhibition of U. S. Cavalry, and were returning on their bicycles, and when near Curtis hill two tramps jumped out from behind a clump of bushes and attempted to grab the girls. Miss Warren managed to escape from the ruffians. Miss Wilson was not so fortunate. She attempted to pass the men, but one of them grabbed her about the waist and pulled her from her bicycle. She screamed for help, which arrived in due time, as two men came along on a tandem and frightened away the ruffians. They jumped from their machine and gave chase, but could not capture them. The young ladies escaped injury, but were badly frightened.

RUNAWAY ACCIDENT.

AMESBURY, Oct. 4.—Yesterday afternoon Hon. Jacob R. Huntington, accompanied by his wife, grandson and a woman whose name was not learned, were driving on Friend street when the horse became frightened and started to run. As the carriage turned the corner of School street Mr. Huntington was bringing the horse under control, when a dog rushed from a yard, and jumping at the horse, caused him to start again. Before Mr. Huntington could get control of the horse the carriage which was a closed one, struck a tree, breaking two wheels and the door. The horse continued for a short distance, when he was stopped. The occupants of the carriage escaped injury, which seems almost a miracle as the carriage was dragged 200 feet or more on two wheels.

WILL MEET IN HAVERHILL.

HAVERHILL, Oct. 7.—The final cycle meet of the New England circuit will take place at the Main street track Saturday afternoon. The meet will close the local track for the season. This meet was announced for Saturday some time ago, and then postponed as Brockton desired the wind up, but the wheelmen like the local track, and as there has been trouble at Brockton, the meet will be held here. The races will include one-mile open, one-mile lap, one-mile championship of Essex county, one-mile lap, and consolation race. Dudley and Bob Urquhart will have a five-mile pursuit race, and the Eagle Cycle club of Boston and the Haverhill triplet team will run for five miles. The races will be all hotly contested. Entries will be made with C. G. Percival of Boston.

ALMOST A BLAZE.

HAVERHILL, Oct. 7.—An overturned lamp in the basement of C. W. Smith's fish market came near causing a serious conflagration yesterday afternoon. A furnace was being set up, and the lamp was accidentally turned over by one of the workmen. H. W. Jones, a cook at the Klondike restaurant, caught up the blazing lamp in an old coat and attempted to throw it out of the window. The garment caught on a nail and caught fire, and Jones was obliged to let go, and the blaze was for a few minutes a threatening one. The fire was finally extinguished without outside assistance.

AMESBURY POULTRY SHOW.

AMESBURY, Oct. 7.—The coming poultry show of the Amesbury Poultry association is expected to eclipse any of the three previously held. The exhibit, which takes place in the armory, will continue for four days and will open November 30. The first day will be devoted to receiving the poultry and placing in position in readiness for the judges to begin work early Wednesday morning. Milbury H. Sands will be superintendent of the hall. There will be an institute meeting on the evening of December 1, when it is expected to have addresses by the judges. Judge Felch of Natick will officiate. It is expected that there will be an unusually large number of birds from other towns.

HELD FOR THE GRAND JURY.

AMESBURY, Oct. 7.—The case of Miss Jessie L. Quimby, which, owing to its local features, has attracted much attention in this town, who was charged with the larceny of $390 from Miss Myra A. Ordway, has ended in the Somerville police court. Miss Quimby appeared in court and Judge Story ordered her to recognize in the sum of $1000 for the grand jury. Miss Quimby was released on bonds furnished by her mother. She was accompanied in court by her sister, and her lawyer, Attorney Hurlburt. The preliminary hearing in the police court was asked for by Mr. Hurlburt.

LYNN WAS ALARMED.

LYNN, Oct. 7.—Tuesday morning an alarm was rung in for a fire in the Lynn item building. The block is in the centre of the business section, and when the alarm was sounded it caused much fear, because of the last great fire, which proved so destructive. Fortunately the fire was soon under control, after causing a slight loss. The blaze started under a furnace used for melting linotype metal on the top floor of the block, and burned a hole through the roof before the firemen subdued the blaze.

COUNTY CHAMPIONSHIP.

HAVERHILL, Oct. 6.—John Fitzgibbons of this city will play a series of four pool matches with R. J. Upton at Upton's pool and billiard room this week for the championship of Essex county. The first match took place last night, and the others will take place today, Thursday and Friday evenings. The men will play for 125 balls each evening, making a total of 500 for the winner of the series.

HIS 83d BIRTHDAY.

SAUGUS, Oct. 5.—George Oliver, one of the oldest residents of the town, celebrated his 83d birthday yesterday at his home, East Saugus, and entertained a large number of friends and acquaintances. The affair was of an informal nature. Mr. Oliver is a native of Lynn, where he was born in 1815, the year that Saugus was set off from Lynn, and he has resided here ever since. At an early age he learned the shoemakers' trade, at which he worked for 20 years, and then he carried on a successful business of shoe manufacturing. In 1838 he married Miss Elizabeth R. Miles of Concord, N. H. She died in 1887. He has three sons, George H. Oliver of Swampscott, Charles B. Oliver of East Saugus, and Horace M. Oliver of Lynn. One daughter, Mrs. W. W. Brown died in 1890. Mr. Oliver's political life has been somewhat varied. The first president he voted for was Martin van Buren, and then he joined the old liberty party, later the free soilers. He still enjoys very good health and takes pleasure in travelling about among his relatives and friends, talking over the doings of the day.

PROVIDED FOR THE FUTURE.

SALISBURY, Oct. 7.—An agreement has been reached between the selectmen and the H. M. & A. Street Railway company. The right to equip its branch from the centre to the State line with the necessary appliances for the purpose of operating it by electricity, has been granted. The company has paid to the town $200 as its share of the expense of building the new bridges at Hook's crossing. One of the articles in the agreement was, that the road should furnish a book of rides to each of the selectmen and highway surveyor, immediately after the annual town meeting in each year, free of charge, and to this, the officials of the road readily assented, so in the future there can be no more talk of this or that official being bought by giving him a book of free rides.

WAS A HAVERHILL MAN.

LYNN, Oct. 5.—Mrs. Belle Wood and Wm. Beckworth, sufferers from the lodging house fire in Lynn Friday evening, are improving and will recover. Mrs. Wood inhaled smoke and Beckworth was injured about the back. The man burned to death has been positively identified as Geo. Esterbrook of Haverhill. Esterbrook lived in Haverhill last March and April and was a canvasser for Gately & Co. He went away and later worked in Everett and Charlestown. He then went to Salem and still later to Lynn, where he met his death. His wife is said to be in Haverhill at the present time. Esterbrook leaves a baby.

HELD FOR HIGH COURT.

AMESBURY, Oct. 5.—Lillian Wall of Haverhill was arranged in the municipal court here charged on two counts. The first charged the prisoner with causing the death of an infant found in a valise off Salisbury beach on Sept. 10. The second charged her with the concealment of the birth of her child. The prisoner pleaded not guilty to both charges. The court stated that there was not sufficient evidence to convict on the first count and discharged the prisoner but on the second count the court found probable cause and held the prisoner in $3000 for the January term of the superior court.

IN THE NINTH DISTRICT.

HAVERHILL, Oct. 5.—The 9th Essex representative convention was held in the Bradford town hall last evening. Isaac Poor of ward 7 was chairman and W. A. Butler of Georgetown, clerk. Harry P. Morse of ward 7 moved the nomination of E. H. Hoyt of ward 7, which was carried unanimously. Mr. Hoyt was brought to the hall and accepted the honor in an appropriate speech. Reps. J. C. Anthony of Adams and W. S. V. Cook of Milford, were introduced and made felicitous speeches. The delegates were then escorted to Tanner's upper hall and partook of a formal banquet given by Mr. Hoyt. John F. Cook of ward 7 was toastmaster.

CLEARING THE PARK.

SWAMPSCOTT, Oct. 6.—The Knowlton building which was occupied by Gilbert H. Carroll, has been completely torn down, thus leaving another clearing on the park reservation. The building, which stands next to where the Phillips boat house was, is to be razed some time this week. This will leave only the old Stone house between the Park building and the Farham block. It has been stated that this house will soon be moved away. With this one off the reservation it will leave a clear space upon which the Farham building can be moved down opposite its new location and from their across the street.

SCHOONER WRECKED.

GLOUCESTER, Oct. 4.—The schooner Lizzie M. Stanwood arrived here Saturday morning, having on board the crew of the shipwrecked schooner William Thomas, lumber laden, bound from Calais, Me., to New Bedford. Captain Morrison stated that the Thomas left Calais heavily laden with lumber, on Thursday. Everything went well until 10 o'clock Friday night. At that time the vessel was about two miles off Thatcher's island. The vessel was making poor headway in the high seas and began leaking badly. The crew managed to get at the boat, which they cut away and boarded. For two hours they struggled against the gale and the seas, and were picked up by the schooner Stanwood about 3 o'clock next morning.

HONORED HIS MEMORY.

SALEM, Oct. 6.—The Essex Institute held a regular meeting at the rooms on Essex street, and an extended notice was taken of the death of Charles S. Osgood, who was the librarian of the Essex Institute for many years.

Miss Susie Stevens has been chosen secretary and treasurer of the Roundabout club. The meeting occurred Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Horace Stevens.

Several guests from out of town, who will be present at the Leland-Smith wedding next week, will be entertained at Osgood hall and also at the homes of Messrs. Nathaniel and Sam D. Stevens.

Mrs. McFarlane of the Lawrence mission house occupied the pulpit of the Methodist church, yesterday morning and Mrs. Ingalls of Methuen conducted the evening services.

A social meeting and entertainment will be held for members of Bradstreet colony, Pilgrim Fathers, Monday evening, Oct. 18. Mrs. H. A. Webster of the Good of the Order committee, will have charge of the program.

Joseph Lawlor, an amateur sprinter would like to arrange a race for honor or for a small purse as would best suit any competitor who may come forward in town, the distance to be 100 or 125 yards. Of the fast runners he would prefer to meet John Morris of Maple Avenue.

From 1:30 till 4 o'clock any afternoon during the next two weeks, any person interested will be allowed to look over the season's work in the line of preserving at the home of Mrs. J. H. Rea. The well filled closets are worth the time and journey to see the display of fruits and vegetables, being particularly fine.

Funeral services over the body of the late William Halliday occurred at the home on Water Street, Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The brief service was conducted by Rev. Edward Seymour Thomas of St. Paul's church. Messrs. William Halliday, David Halliday, C. W. Reynolds and Oliver Fiske of Chelmsford served as bearers. The body now rests in Riggs-wood.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Chapin have the sympathy of the community in the loss of their daughter, Nettie whose death occurred Saturday afternoon. The little one was again nine months, and death was the result of brain trouble. The body was taken to Belchertown, Mass. Tuesday morning for burial. A brief service of family prayer was held at the late home Monday.

Miss Anna M. Tucker represented the Congregational Sunday school at the convention at Fitchburg this week. The session commenced Tuesday and closed Thursday.

Seth Farnham, who recently submitted to the surgical treatment of skin grafting at the hospital in Boston, is doing nicely. In fact, the result of the operation was so successful that the physicians made use of the case as an illustration to a class of one hundred students.

Arrangements are being made for a fine concert to be given at an early date. The talent will include advanced pupils (post graduates) from the New England Conservatory of Music; a recitalist from the department of elocution and a soprano soloist, violinist and accompanist from the department of music.

A writ of attachment emanating from the case of Pinkham vs. Murphy, alleging the burning of Sargent's barn, was placed upon the property of F. L. Sargent Monday. The ad damnum was for $3000 and the writ returnable Nov. 11. It is understood, were promptly furnished by Mr. Sargent.

The historical anniversary of Rev. Charles Noyes delivered at the North church on the occasion of the 250th anniversary of the society, neatly bound, has been distributed among the parishioners and other interested persons. The merit of the production and the typographical appearance have been subjects of favorable comment.

Mrs. John Coleman of Kentville, N. S., who has been visiting her brother, J. M. DeAdder in Stevens Village, left for home this morning. She was accompanied by her sister, Miss Sarah DeAdder, who has resided here and in Methuen for a number of years and who goes to visit her old home. She will be absent about three weeks.

The lecture delivered by Leon H. Vincent upon "Hawthorne", Friday evening, at the Congregational church was probably the brightest and rarest literary treat ever presented to the people of North Andover. The large audience was delighted with both the delivery and the production. Mr. Vincent's next lecture will be awaited with somewhat of impatience.

In Sutton's pasture, Saturday afternoon there was a game of ball between nines representing the Stevens and Sutton's mills. The afternoon was not long enough to finish the game but it is said that the "game" came pretty near finishing the men. At the end of the seventh inning, the score stood 20-19 in favor of the Stevens' club. Thomas Lever umpired for the Sutton team and Jas. Connor for the Stevens nine.

In Odd Fellows Hall last evening, before a good sized audience, the following program was directed by Chief Templar C. W. Hinxman of Rescue lodge I. O. G. T.: Piano solo, John Hulme; tenor solo, J. Smith and Bingham of Lawrence, the well known concreters and pavers, have been given the work of making the concrete sidewalks in town. The form of "bidding" or "proposing" for the work was dispensed with this year.

Several Salem people and residents of the lower district, who were in attendance at the Unitarian conference in Lawrence, yesterday, on the return journey enjoyed an electric car ride to the Centre and then walked to the Marblehead station taking the evening train from there.

In appreciation of a generous check to aid the work of the charitable union, at the tea table last evening Mrs. Geo. G. Davis was accorded a hearty vote of thanks. Even the gentlemen-associate members were permitted to express their feelings by voting in this society where the only votes ordinarily counted are those of the ladies.

The first meeting and social of the Charitable union yesterday was quite successful. Mrs. Horace N. Stevens and a coterie of the useful and kindly ladies re-assembled after the summer rest and the season's work was undertaken with a will. The evening social was in charge of Miss Laura A. Bailey, Mrs. George L. Barker, and Mrs. George L. Burnham of Andover.

A prayer for the release of Miss Alma Downing from detention at Sherburne is in circulation and is being numerously signed. The excessively severe sentence imposed and the method taken to reform the girl will doubtless become a source of life long regret to those concerned directly or indirectly in the girl's incarceration. The case some time ago attracted the attention of people of humane disposition and kindly hearts outside the town who have already given attention to its merit.

On the Parkway.

The section of the state road along the Mystic valley parkway, about two and one half miles in extent, lying between Winchester and West Medford, was opened about three weeks ago, and last week (Thursday evening) it was illuminated for the first time. The effect was most pleasing and the 66 Welsbach lights employed, did the work very satisfactorily. The lights are placed just 200 feet apart and extend the entire length of the thoroughfare. The cost of maintaining the lighting is $31 per year per light. Sunday, a typical autumnal day, the boulevard was simply a crush of fancy private equipages, single and double hitches, and in the van of the procession was the smart double rig of George H. Gilbert, Esq., probably the best known of any on the course. Mr. Gilbert guides the horses personally since restoration to health and finds keen delight in sharing the pleasure drive with one or another of his genial friends. Early in the week Mr. Gilbert completed the 103rd trip over the model parkway, making the distance travelled 266 1/2 miles.

This beautiful drive is not only the fashionable thing of the hour but it is the delightful thing for a bracing autumnal day, and the residents of the contiguous towns are improving the opportunity presented for pleasure. Observed among the turnouts Sunday afternoon was the stylish trap of Mr. Holt of Arlington, in charge of Mr. Paris with Mrs. Paris and Miss Fannie Holt for companions. The "bike" is also a pleasure conveyance on the parkway and decidedly in evidence in varied form, and hundreds of enthusiasts make use of the new road. Conspicuous among the latter Saturday, was Miss Bessie May Shepard of town, seated "well in front" on a rapidly moving tandem.

Obituary.

MR. JAMES STEVENS.

The release from an extended and painful illness came to James Stevens of North Andover at 5:30 o'clock Monday evening at his home at the Centre, and for every reason except that the demise ended suffering the fact is regretful to all who knew him, for he ever had a cheerful word for those whom he met day by day and was ever ready to do a kind and neighborly act whenever the opportunity offered. An invalid he had been unable to do excessive work for several years and for several weeks he has been practically confined to the bed. Death was due to a complication of ailments induced by kidney trouble.

Fifty-eight years ago Mr. Stevens was born in Ossipee, N. H., and was the son of William Burleigh Stevens of that place. When a young man he removed to Haverhill and during the war he went to the front from that city. Enlisting in the 50th Massachusetts Reg't., he did valuable work under Col. Messer, receiving an honorable discharge from the service in '64. At the time of the war the scene of activity with Mr. Stevens was at Port Hudson, the regiment in which he enlisted being sent to relieve Butler in Louisiana.

Later the years of his life were spent in Lynn, and for 24 years he was a faithful employee in the shoe firm of W. S. Dixon of that city. From his long residence in that place deceased was well and favorably known and was held to be a man of sterling worth and integrity.

Thirteen years ago he married Miss Nellie T. Fairfield, who with three daughters, Misses Florence, Mildred and Helen survive him. He also leaves a brother, E. H. Stevens in the New Hampshire home. Mr. Stevens was a member of the Masonic fraternity.

After a service shorn of all ostentatious and ritualistic form, but bearing a message of consolation to those in sorrow, conducted by Rev. Charles Noyes, of the North Unitarian church, at the late home in Phillips square, Tuesday morning at ten o'clock, the body of the late James I. Stevens, in charge of relatives, was taken to North Wakefield, N. H., and interred in the family lot. Following the words of comfort, hope and cheer, an opportunity was given for the many relatives and friends gathered in sympathy to look upon the familiar countenance from which the wings of peace had banished even the least sign of suffering leaving the impression not of death but rather of quiet slumber. Simple floral tributes expressed the regard of friends. The funeral was directed by Albert MacDonald.

Hood's Pills act easily and promptly on the liver and bowels. Cure sick headache.

A few weeks ago the editor was taken with a very severe cold that caused him to be in a most miserable condition. It was undoubtedly a bad case of grippe and recognizing it as dangerous he took immediate steps to bring about a speedy cure. From the advertisement of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and the many good recommendations included therein, he concluded to make a first trial of the medicine. To say that it was satisfactory in its results, is putting it very mildly, indeed. It acted like magic and the result was a speedy and permanent cure. We have no hesitancy in recommending this excellent Cough Remedy to anyone afflicted with a cough or cold in any form.—The Banner of Liberty, Libertytown, Maryland.
